

Month

2019

Black History Celebration

Tuesday 29th October

Enfield Unison Black Members Group

Items to be sold on the night from a selection of stalls

@ Enfield Civic Centre, Conference Room, Silver Street
London Enfield EN1 3XA 19:00 – 22:00

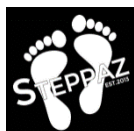

Jeffrey Simon of 'UpTown' Cuisine

Providing African-Caribbean style food speech by the Mayor of Enfield

Steppaz Dance Group

band

LeCaribe

www.eventbrite.co.uk

(Slide mouse pointer on above and click to access and search for Enfield Unison Black Members Group)

Guest Speakers Charmaine Simpson from Black History Studies

Bio of performers for Black History Month event

Steppaz Dance Group

Steppaz is a World Champion Performing Arts Academy company that strives to achieve all things “One Step At A Time”. Established in 2013, based in Bernie Grant Arts Centre with 3 branches (Tottenham, Edmonton and Camden) and led by some of the industry’s leading professionals, Steppaz specializes in creating inspirational and innovative programs. Steppaz provide professional classes for all ages from age 3 in the community. Steppaz develop self-confidence, creativity, problem solving, perseverance, focus, collaboration, dedication and accountability. Steppaz works in an inclusive environment so no matter your ability, if you have a passion for performing, join the community and take your step in the right direction. “Follow Your Dreams One Step At A Time”.

Charmaine Simpson

Charmaine Simpson is the Chief Executive Officer and co-founder of Black History Studies with her husband Mark Simpson in 2007. She is a Director of Black History Study Tours Limited, which is dedicated to promoting cultural tourism to areas of African Heritage. A historian, author, publisher, researcher, film exhibitor, avid social networker and economics graduate, Charmaine has spent the last 11 years popularising the study of African History Studies. Charmaine Simpson is also a Financial Educator and Financial Literacy Advocate who organises courses, workshops and events to improve Financial Literacy. She is currently a Director with The Institute of Black Culture, Media and Sport and worked on a documentary on the ‘African History of Sport’.

LeCaribe Steel band

The Carribé Steel Band was formed by John Thomas and is one of the first professional Steel Pan Band’s in the UK. John has not only performed for the most high profile clients but is also a sought after teacher of the instrument. The band is available for weddings, parties, primary school workshops, festivals, summer fairs and corporate

www.eventbrite.co.uk

(Slide mouse pointer on above and click to access and search for Enfield Unison Black Members Group)

events. The musicians in the band pride themselves in being part of the most authentic Steel Band as John grew up in Trinidad playing the Steel Pans and all the musicians have travelled to Trinidad to master their respective Steel Pans.

band pride themselves in Steel Band as John grew

www.eventbrite.co.uk

(Slide mouse pointer on above and click to access and search for Enfield Unison Black Members Group)

