

ENFIELD UNISON BLACK MEMBERS GROUP

Present

The Black Presence in Europe and Worldwide
BLACK HISTORY MONTH CELEBRATION

Tuesday 28th October 2014

@The Dugdale Centre, Thomas Hardy House
Executive Suite, 39 London Road
Enfield, EN2 6DS

It is hoped that our segment of 'The Black Presence in Europe and Worldwide' aims to inspire all that black people in the African Diaspora have contributed to the advancement of civilization.

Carter G. Woodson (December 19, 1875 – April 3, 1950) says, "He who controls your education, controls the diameter of your circumference". Woodson has been cited as the "father of black history".

He was an African-American historian, author, journalist and the founder of the Association for the Study of African American Life and History. Woodson was one of the first scholars to study African-American history. A founder of Journal of Negro History (Cited on the Wikipedia, The Free Encyclopedia Website)
